

Navigator Capital is a Munich, Germany based private equity partnership focused on the acquisition of distressed smaller companies and non-core business units in need for an extensive carve-out process. Our team of seasoned M&A, financing and restructuring professionals takes pride offering sellers with tailor-made transaction structures and business continuity plans, directly addressing their needs and fears while forcefully supporting the operational improvement of its portfolio companies.

In order to strengthen our Team in Munich we are looking for

Student Trainees (m/f) Mergers & Acquisitions / Project Research

for a term of at least 6 months.

You are flexible and will join our team for c. 15 hours per week. In this time you will support our deal sourcing activities as well as transaction processes. Depending on your capabilities and knowhow you will increasingly take over stand-alone projects and will take responsibility for your field of activity. This will enable you to collect significant work experience in the private equity industry.

Your tasks:

- Research and analysis of relevant target companies and industries
- Supporting company and market research
- Compilation and analysis of financial data, company valuations and budgets
- Development of presentations
- General administrative tasks

Your profile:

- Business related academic education
- Exceptional engagement as well as strong analytical skills
- Strong communication skills and high motivation to work in a team
- Good knowledge of MS Office programs, especially Excel and Power Point
- Experience in the Investment industry / Private Equity/ M&A is a plus
- Strong English skills

Our offer:

You will join a young and motivated team and will be offered to benefit exceptionally from the positive development of the partnership via a result driven compensation scheme in combination with a stake in the company. We pursue an open and team oriented working environment and offer a high degree of independence and personal flexibility to execute your ideas.

We are looking forward to receiving your application providing an overview of your value proposition and expectations, complemented by your CV (pdf-format) via email to hr@navigator-capital.de